

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

DEMONSTRATION ALONG RIVER

FRONT BY THE FIREFIGHTER.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., October 25, 1906.

A practical demonstration of how fires can be fought along the river front was given this afternoon by the fireboat "Firefighter" of Washington. The boat anchored at the Cameron street wharf and distributed nine hundred feet of hose in three sections, extending from the wharf to Fairfax street, a distance of three squares, and at a signal the three streams were played simultaneously over the Braddock House. The test was witnessed by several hundred citizens, including Geo. W. Petty, chief of the Alexandria fire department, and the fire officials of the city.

It was indicated that the fireboat could be of great assistance to Alexandria in the event of a big fire along the river front. The demonstration was made by the fireboat "Firefighter" of Washington. The boat anchored at the Cameron street wharf and distributed nine hundred feet of hose in three sections, extending from the wharf to Fairfax street, a distance of three squares, and at a signal the three streams were played simultaneously over the Braddock House. The test was witnessed by several hundred citizens, including Geo. W. Petty, chief of the Alexandria fire department, and the fire officials of the city.

Johnson Still at Large.

Numerous clues, all barren of results, have been closely followed by the police in an effort to apprehend William Johnson, alias George Midget, colored, the alleged murderer of the late Charles T. Smith. Shortly before 11 o'clock last night the police received a message to the effect that a man answering the description of the fugitive had been seen at Potomac City, Va., and had gone to work at a railroad camp in that vicinity. An investigation proved that the man seen was not Midget. It is reported that the authorities of Potomac City, N. Y., have a photograph of Midget, and that he is wanted in that city on a charge of jumping a ball bond. Efforts will be made to secure his photograph and send out descriptive circulars of Johnson.

Since the murder of Thomas Eley, colored, by Howard Banks, also colored, the police have determined to operate against a large number of colored people who live in apparent ignorance of the law. The section of the city, and who apparently have no visible means of support.

As a result of a raid last night by Chief Constable and Police Officer, Lucy Sheppard, Everett Stanton, Pearl Hawkins and Estelle Bouy, all colored, were charged with vagrancy in the Police Court today. They were committed to the city jail. The Sheppard, were sentenced to sixty days in jail on the above charge.

Brief Mention.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna L. Kaus, wife of Mr. William Kaus, whose death occurred yesterday morning, took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from her late home, 421 Queen street. Rev. J. A. Jeffers, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated. The interment was in Bethel cemetery.

A nonsuit was entered in the circuit court for Alexandria county yesterday. Judge Nicol presiding. In the case of J. E. Adams against the Washington, Arlington and Annapolis Railroad Company, in which the plaintiff sought to recover the sum of $5,000 for alleged personal injuries. At a meeting of the Grand Jury, Royal Arch Masons of Virginia, held in Richmond last evening, Mr. John H. Fisher of this city was elected grand king. A number of Alexandria citizens attended.

Argument will be heard tomorrow in the circuit court for Alexandria county, before Judge Nicol, on the application of James M. Pettit to secure a license to sell liquor at a place near Arlington Junction in Jefferson district.

SETTLED BY MARRIAGE.

Charge Against Samuel Bell Nolle

Crossed by Prosecuting Attorney.

"Complaining witness and defendant married," was the explanation written on a warrant filed against Samuel Bell in the Police Court, which was nolle prossed today by Prosecuting Attorney Ralph Given.

The wedding ceremony took place yesterday afternoon in the hospital where Miss Mary E. Coxen, the complaining witness as well as bride, is confined by illness.

Bell was arrested in a warrant sworn out by the young woman's mother, after her daughter had been taken to the hospital. Owing to the illness of the daughter the case could not come to trial yesterday and will be continued indefinitely. Later in the afternoon the parents of the defendant and the complaining witness stated to Prosecuting Attorney Given that they were interested in a wedding. Bell agreed, and in the custody of a deputy United States marshal he was taken in a carriage to the hospital where the ceremony was performed. Bell was released from custody, and, as stated, the case was nolle prossed.

Entertainment and Sociable.

An entertainment was given in the public hall at Langdon last evening, under the auspices of a social club representing St. Barnabas' Episcopal Mission of Langdon. Mr. Finley Hayes was in charge of the musical and literary program, which was as follows: Vocal music, Langdon Philharmonic Club; recitation, Mrs. D. J. Roberts; vocal solo, Miss Lerch; quartet (Robb, Hoed), Mrs. Torbett, Miss Whitcomb, Miss Mona Roberts and Mr. H. L. Smith; recitation, sketch (Clementine Jim), Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Maude-Howell Smith; recitation, Miss Whitcomb.

Dancing followed, with Mr. John Watson, jr., as floor manager, and continued until near midnight. Refreshments were served under the supervision of Mrs. Haas, Miss Edith Grimes and Mrs. Fenwick.

It was announced that the meetings of St. Barnabas' Episcopal Mission of Langdon will be held at the corner of 224 and Evans street, Langdon.

Sentence of Six Months in Jail.

Six months in jail for the larceny of two suits of clothes was the sentence imposed by Judge Mullowny in the Police Court today on George Brown, colored. Frank Kleiman, the owner of the coats, stated that he missed them from his room October 3; and Detective Pratt testified that the coats were sold at a store on the corner of D street from which place they were recovered.

"Did you steal these suits?" Brown was asked by the court.

"I didn't, judge," replied Brown. "A friend offered to sell one of them to me, but I told him I had no money. So he gave me the suit to me. And I can prove it by Pike Slide."

Judge Mullowny did not think the business transaction was reasonable and found him guilty of the larceny. A charge of housebreaking against Brown was dismissed.

Court Appoints Receivers.

Chief Justice Claiborne today appointed Charles W. Darr and Joseph A. Borkart receivers of the bar room at 107 G street. The receivers gave bond in the sum of $5,000.

The order was based on a suit in equity filed by Chas. W. Darr and Joseph A. Borkart as trustees under chattel trusts given by Christian Seltz to secure about $5,000. The object of the proceeding is to conserve the estate in the interest of the mortgagees.

Besides Mr. Seltz, James W. Bauby is named as defendant. Attorney R. A. Curtin represents the defendants.

Initiative and Referendum.

The National Federation for People's Rule, of which Mr. George H. Shibley is the president, has sent broadcast from this city a circular letter, setting forth the advantages of the initiative and referendum in state and national legislation. He states that in 114 congressional districts the referendum has been adopted, and that the initiative and referendum are being introduced in 22 congressional districts. Twenty-four of the southern representatives, he states, have signed a pledge to work for this policy.
